TIPS TO HELP YOUR CHILD STAY SAFE

- Talk about what they watch, share and post.
- Encourage them to think before they post.
- Set boundaries for screen time.
- Don't share personal info (school, location, phone number, etc.).
- Report and block anything that feels wrong.
- Encourage breaks and offline activities.
- Keep the conversation open and stay involved.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What kind of videos do you like to watch on TikTok?
- Who are your favourite creators and why?
- Have you ever seen something that made you uncomfortable?
- Do you know anyone you've talked to online?
- What would you do if someone asked for personal info?
- What trends or challenges are popular right now?

RED FLAGS TO WATCH FOR

- Sudden secrecy about TikTok use.
- Spending much more time on TikTok.
- Getting upset after going online.
- Following or talking to unknown people.
- Sharing personal info or location.
- Drastic mood changes or loss of interest in other activities.

QUICK DO'S & DON'TS

DO
- Encourage open conversations.
- Know who they follow.
- Review privacy settings together.
- Praise good choices.
- Be a trusted place for help.

DON'T
- Spy or snoop.
- Overreact—listen first.
- Dismiss their concerns.
- Ignore red flags.
- Blame or judge.
